REGISTRATION

When registering you will be required to provide basic entrant information (listed below). before the competition takes place you will be required to provide more detailed information regarding your routine. (see Your Entry Details section)

EMAIL

All correspondence regarding the competition will go to this email address.

FULL NAME

Competitors first and last name

STAGE NAME

A “stage name” is the name that you are or would like to be known as when performing. It doesn’t have to be different to your actual name.

We recommend when choosing your stage name – whether it is your ‘everyday’ name or not – that you keep this for all competitions so that the Aerial community get to know who you are as a performer.

It is possible that you may share the same name as another entrant so consider making your unique so we can identify you easily.

APPARATUS

Select your chosen apparatus to perform on - Pole or Lyra.

DIVISION

Choose the current level that you train in for the chosen apparatus you are entering.

APPARATUS AND DIVISIONS

You must enter a division relative to the apparatus and level of classes that you are attending at Studio Exhilarate as of the date of the Fearless competition (5 May 2024)

The divisions for each apparatus are broken down below – if you are unsure, please check with your instructor or studio owner before submitting your entry.

APPARATUS

- Pole
- Lyra
- Competitors may enter in both Pole and Lyra

PREPARING YOUR ROUTINE

Guidelines for preparing your routine for FEARLESS 2024

ROUTINE LENGTH

Routine is length dependant on your division:

Beginner Division

2 mins - 2 mins 30 sec

Intermediate Division

2 mins - 3 mins

Advanced Division

3 mins - 3 mins 30 sec

APPARATUS

LYRA - Studio hoops must be used - entrants required Lyra height to be provided when details are collected.

POLE - Studio Poles are 38mm Brass 3.8 metres high 2 meters between each pole
Static stage right - Spin stage left

DIVISIONS

Enter the correct division of the apparatus you are performing on as of the entry closing date.

SKILLS

Entrants should only utilise skills at their highest level in their apparatus.

Variations of skills must be approved studio instructors, if a skill performed is above your division, you will receive a 2 point deduction.

e.g. An intermediate entrant cannot perform a handspring as it is an advanced trick.

PROPS

Any props must be able to be set up and packed up within 1 minute.

Human props are NOT allowed.

COSTUME

Costumes must be appropriately fitted and have no possible interference with your chosen apparatus eg. no sharp jewellery or metal details.

No Nudity - If an entrants costume malfunctions they will receive a 2 point penalty

THEME

Routines must not be offensive and/or make any derogatory references to any religion and/or race.

MUSIC

Entrants must supply their own music.

The music must be edited to within the time length allowed for the division (not under the minimum and not over the maximum)

If the song includes any offensive language and/or sensitive subjects please advise in your entry form so we can include a content and/or language warning for the audience.

MATS

All Lyra competitors are required to use mats for their performance - please keep this in mind when planning routines

YOUR ENTRY DETAILS

After registration and before the competition takes place you will be contacted and asked to provide more detailed information regarding your routine - below we have provided a guide as to what information you will need to provide.

PROPS

If you are using any props please provide the details of all items.
If you are not using any props, please write "No Props".

MUSIC

Provide details of the song you are performing with.

Write as Song Name - Artist Name

If multiple entrants choose the same song, whomever submitted their entry first will have the right to compete with that song. Any subsequent entries with the same song will be contacted ASAP and asked to select another song.

MUSIC FILE

You must provide an mp3 file of your music.

This should be the same file that you will be performing your to and training with.
Please ensure that it is edited and the correct time length for your division.

There are free programs you can use to edit music (Audacity, WavePad, etc.)

Entrants are allowed to use professional sound/audio editors at their own cost

PHOTO

This will be used for competition promotion and announcements on posters, the Studio Exhilarate website and Studio Exhilarate social media.

Please ensure you provide a high-resolution photo with a clear background.

It can include your apparatus, but please make sure that it matches the apparatus category you are entering in.

ENTRANT BIO

Our host/MC will introduce each entrant before their performance.

This bio/profile will be used for this intro and may also be used to profile entrants on Social Media.

We prefer entrants to write the Entrant Bio in the third person (She, He, They, Jenny)

Try to include at least a full paragraph – this can give the judges time in between acts to give great feedback on competition day.

Here are some suggestions of information you might include:

- Age of entrant
- How long have they been learning their apparatus
- How long they have been attending Studio Exhilarate classes
- Other hobbies
- Favourite apparatus trick
- What they love about Studio Exhilarate
- Why they are chose to enter Fearless
- A brief synopsis of the routine or a back story/inspiration

This Bio will come in handy if you plan on entering other competitions so make sure you save a copy!

CONTENT OR LANGUAGE WARNING

Language Warning

Advise if your music or routine contains any offensive/inappropriate language (swearing etc)

Music lyrics must not contain language that is offensive to or makes derogatory references to any religion, race, sex, gender, age or ability.

Content Warning

Advise if your routine or music contains anything that the audience or other competitors may find to be a sensitive topic.

Examples include drug use or addiction, suicide, death, violence etc.

This information is critical to enable us to issue the audience a content/trigger warning before your routine so they have a chance to leave if they feel they may be triggered or suffer emotional or physiological distress.

If you are unsure please write details of the song, routine topic in the further details questions and we can then decide if the MC needs to issue a warning.

SOCIAL MEDIA

We will be promoting the competition by sharing information and images in the lead up to, during and after Fearless.

If you would like to be tagged in our social media posts, please provide your Instagram, Facebook and/or tiktok usernames.

If you would prefer not to be tagged, or you do not have social media accounts, please select "No Socials".
